All communications from the Club will be via email to the address provided at time of membership. If your email address changes or you are not receiving emails be sure to contact the Club with the proper information.

If the Course is closed for weather or any other reason play is NOT PERMITTED.

Players are fully responsible for any damage caused to person or property. This includes, but is not limited to other players, visitors, adjacent residences, vehicles or any club property. The Club shall be held harmless for any and all damage caused by players and/or guests to Kings Crossing Golf Club.

Bringing alcoholic beverages onto the course that are not purchased at Kings Crossing Golf Club is strictly prohibited. KCGC Staff shall have the right to inspect and confiscate all alcoholic beverages brought onto the property. The KC Grille is a full service food and bar providing items for your enjoyment.

Pace of Play

It is imperative that all players adhere to playing etiquette. At KCGC 9 holes can be played in 1.75 hours, 18 holes in 3.5 hours. This should be your guide when playing at KCGC. A Player Assistant will be monitoring play to ensure all players move at a reasonable pace. Slow play can result in a warning to speed play and/or removal from the golf course. As is etiquette please allow faster players through your group. Where possible groups will be combined to speed play.

All Members and Players at KCGC Must adhere to our Code of Conduct-please read on our website at <http://kingscrossinggolfclub.com/wp-content/uploads/KC-CODES-OF-CONDUCT.pdf>

Kings Crossing Golf Club Memberships are valid for the term of each package unless otherwise noted based on Plan and payment options. The Club open and close dates are dependent on weather conditions. Membership fees are not refundable. Memberships may be transferred for a rate determined by the Club. Memberships may be purchased by credit card, check or cash.
